TEXTS AND TRANSLATIONS

Come fiammeggia e splende

Come fiammeggia e splende, hor quindi, hor quinci il sole così di voi, Signore, luce l'alto valore.
Che preggio acquista a vostra nobil prole,
ne perché siate tale
vien da opra mortale
ma al rio beveste l'acqua, che v'infuse l'alma virtù de le divine Muse.

How it blazes and shines, now here, now there, the sun:
So from you, Lord,
Burns lofty valor.
Such a prize will confer on your noble offspring, since you are this way because of mortal work, but at the stream you drank the water, which infused you
with the lifegiving virtue of the divine Muses.

Caro dolce mio Amore

Caro dolce mio Amore
non mi fuggir, deh, Dio.
Se t'ho donato il core che più non vuoi del mio.
Deh non mi far languire ch'altro da te non bramo se non sol che tu m'ami quanto t'amo.

My dear, sweet Love,
do not fly from me, oh God!
If I have given you my heart,
What more do you want than mine?
Oh, do not make me languish, Since I long for nothing other than you, save only that you love me as much as I love you.

Dolci e vaghi augelletti

Dolci e vaghi augelletti, che per verdi boschetti soavi versi ogn' hor gite cantando, fate col vostro canto noto il mio largo pianto
a quella fera che m'infiamma e strugge, e ride del mio male talché mercè con lei gridar non vale, poiché da me si fugge
et io resto gridando,
'Rendimi il cor da me già posto in bando.'

Sweet and lovely little birds that among the green groves wander singing sweet verses make my immense weeping manifest with your song to that wild one who inflames and torments me
and laughs at my pain,
so much so that is not worth pleading with her,
since she flees from me and I remain, wailing,
'Give me back the heart that I have already exiled.'

Bella d'Amor guerriera

Bella d'Amor guerriera,
che guerra e pace porti, ben la tua stirpe altera,
Barbara, Non par suoni altro che morti;
ma l'Angelico nome,
i begli occhi e le chiome, il volto e gli atti accorti spiran dolci conforti.

Beautiful warrior of Love you, who bring war and peace, Indeed, your proud lineage, Barbara, seems to announce nothing but deaths.
But the angelic name,
the beautiful eyes and the hair, the face and the quick movements whisper sweet comforts.
