STUDENT CHARTER 2024/25

The Academy's Student Charter sets out the expectations and aspirations of both students and staff at the Royal Academy of Music. We are proud of our clear, friendly and professional lines of communication between all parties and we believe that this generates the environment for a profitable studentship and the necessary support to help you fulfil your potential.

LEARNING, TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT

The Academy will:	All students have a responsibility to:
Provide high-level performance training and opportunities at the Academy to prepare you for the reality of the professional life	Pursue your studies with diligence, honesty and professionalism, while making the most of your programme of study
Provide access to up to date information about learning, teaching and assessment on your programme of study through a set of relevant publications	Familiarise yourselves with the relevant information and documentation provided by the Academy on SharePoint, Blackboard and the Academy website
Provide clear and accurate information on the Academy's academic regulations and disciplinary procedures, including academic appeals and student complaints
Provide each of you with a Programme Tutor/Head of Year for academic and pastoral welfare	Contact your Programme Tutor/Head of Year if something is giving you cause for concern in terms of your studies, your personal life or any other aspect of your student experience
Provide information and assistance to aid your studies at the Academy if you notify us of a disability	You are encouraged to disclose any disability or specific requirements at the earliest opportunity to ensure that appropriate support is made available to you
Ensure that your work is assessed fairly against clear, published marking criteria and give useful feedback on your work in a reasonable timeframe	Observe all deadlines including the submission of assessed work and attending all scheduled examinations
Provide the opportunity for you to offer feedback on programmes of study	Provide feedback on your experience at the Academy, your programme of study and your department via the annual feedback
Ensure you are made aware of any changes to programmes of study immediately, and consult the student body when making changes

FACILITIES AND SERVICES

The Academy will:	All students have a responsibility to:
Provide access to first-class learning resources to support your studies, including excellent practice facilities	Make use of the facilities provided by the Academy with care and consideration for equipment and other users; and comply with any regulations concerning their use and with any relevant health and safety requirements
Provide access to recording facilities and staff recording expertise	Familiarise yourselves with the Academy's Copyright and Intellectual Property policies and procedures
Provide efficient service departments to support you in your studies	Observe all deadlines relating to your studentship, including enrolment forms, examination forms and elective choices

By supporting this charter, you are hereby agreeing to the principles set out in the CUKSN (Conservatoires UK Student Network) Respect Policy.

CUKSN RESPECT POLICY

As a member of Conservatoires UK, we celebrate the opportunity for our students and staff to work and learn in an environment of openness and mutual respect, free from sexual misconduct, bullying, harassment and discrimination of any kind.

- We encourage the giving and receiving of constructive feedback to promote self-development and the achievement of shared goals
- We promote equality, diversity and inclusivity as part of our core values and hold them at the forefront of all of our institutional decision-making
- We are committed to providing support and taking appropriate action for any individuals who feel they have been affected by sexual misconduct, bullying, harassment or discrimination

Should you feel that you have been subject to any harassment or discrimination of any kind, please contact our Student Services department or the SU. You can also find our complaints procedure in the Student Information Hub on Blackboard.

By signing up to this, we are committed to ensuring that Royal Academy of Music will be an open and respectful space in which anyone can work, learn and evolve.

We are here to listen; we are here to help.
