

PROCUREMENT STATEMENT

The Royal Academy of Music (The Academy) spends around £10m each year on goods, services and works in support of its activities in teaching, research and practice. We aim to build strong, collaborative and high-performing relationships with our key suppliers operating in a wide range of industries.

Our intention is to buy goods, services and works in a manner that delivers value for money, in a responsible and sustainable manner; we aim to work collaboratively with suppliers and to manage risk effectively in line with our Financial Regulations.

The Academy also recognises the power of collaborative procurement in the higher education, arts, sciences and cultural sectors. As such, we are a member of the London Universities Purchasing Consortium.

Suppliers should note that, at least for the academic year 2025/26, the Academy is not a 'Contracting Authority' under the meaning of both the Public Contracts Regulations 2024 and the Procurement Act 2023.
